Discover Fine Jewelry & Fashion Trends Through The Jewelry Find YouTube Channel

Imagine learning how to effortlessly enhance your style with stunning jewelry in 5 minutes or less. The Jewelry Find, the new and engaging YouTube channel dedicated to showing how to embellish your wardrobe with luxury jewelry, does just that. Each of the channel's videos introduce a jewelry brand or designer, and feature a range of dazzling rings, cuffs, pendants, earrings, and more.

The Jewelry Find's host, Stephanie, understands that fashion—including the jewelry we wear—is an important part of how we communicate. "Fashion is one of the most important forms of nonverbal communication we have," she explains. With her BA in textiles and design, MFA in Fashion/Apparel Design from the Savannah College of Art and Design, and relatable manner, she knows how to speak to a woman's sense of style.

In every video, Stephanie gives a brief background on the jewelry designer or brand, then presents a mix of their most striking pieces and shows how to style them. Whatever your fashion personality, she shows jewelry pairings that are on trend and fashion forward. And Stephanie's exclusive interviews with designers offer the opportunity to meet them and learn about what inspires their creations.

In addition to its YouTube channel, The Jewelry Find features more gorgeous jewelry fashion via its website (thejewelryfind.com), Facebook (facebook.com/thejewelryfind), Instagram (@thejewelryfind), and Pinterest (pinterest.com/thejewelryfind).
